General notes

Technical Documentation guidelines

You can find herewith some generic information to simplify cunsulting of technical documentation:

1. Models of same range share the same exploded views, which report the richest set of spare parts:generally, a model does not necessarly have a related spare part for each particular shown on exploded views.

2. Some spare parts can not be represented directly on the exploded views (instruction booklets, specific kit, etc...). You can find those codes in the spare parts list with the same reference of particular where spares are installed or with references 099, 999. Instruction booklets, once managed, appear with 000 reference.

3. On the higher right site of each exploded view there is a serial number which indicates the beginning of the production of certain range:some models might have more than an exploded view for a given category, each distinguished by a different serial no.and linked to another spare parts list, In this case, serial no. is required to supply the right spare part code. Exploded view to be considered is the one with a more recent serial no. but previous than the one of the model that needs assistance.

4.Exploded views might require further updates even after publishing. Addition of new spares will go on following the already existing numeration references. Revision number of an exploded view is shown into last four digits of serial number into upper right hand corner.

5.The spare parts list associated to an exploded view shows related codes of spares managed for a certain model; for each spare part other informations are available:

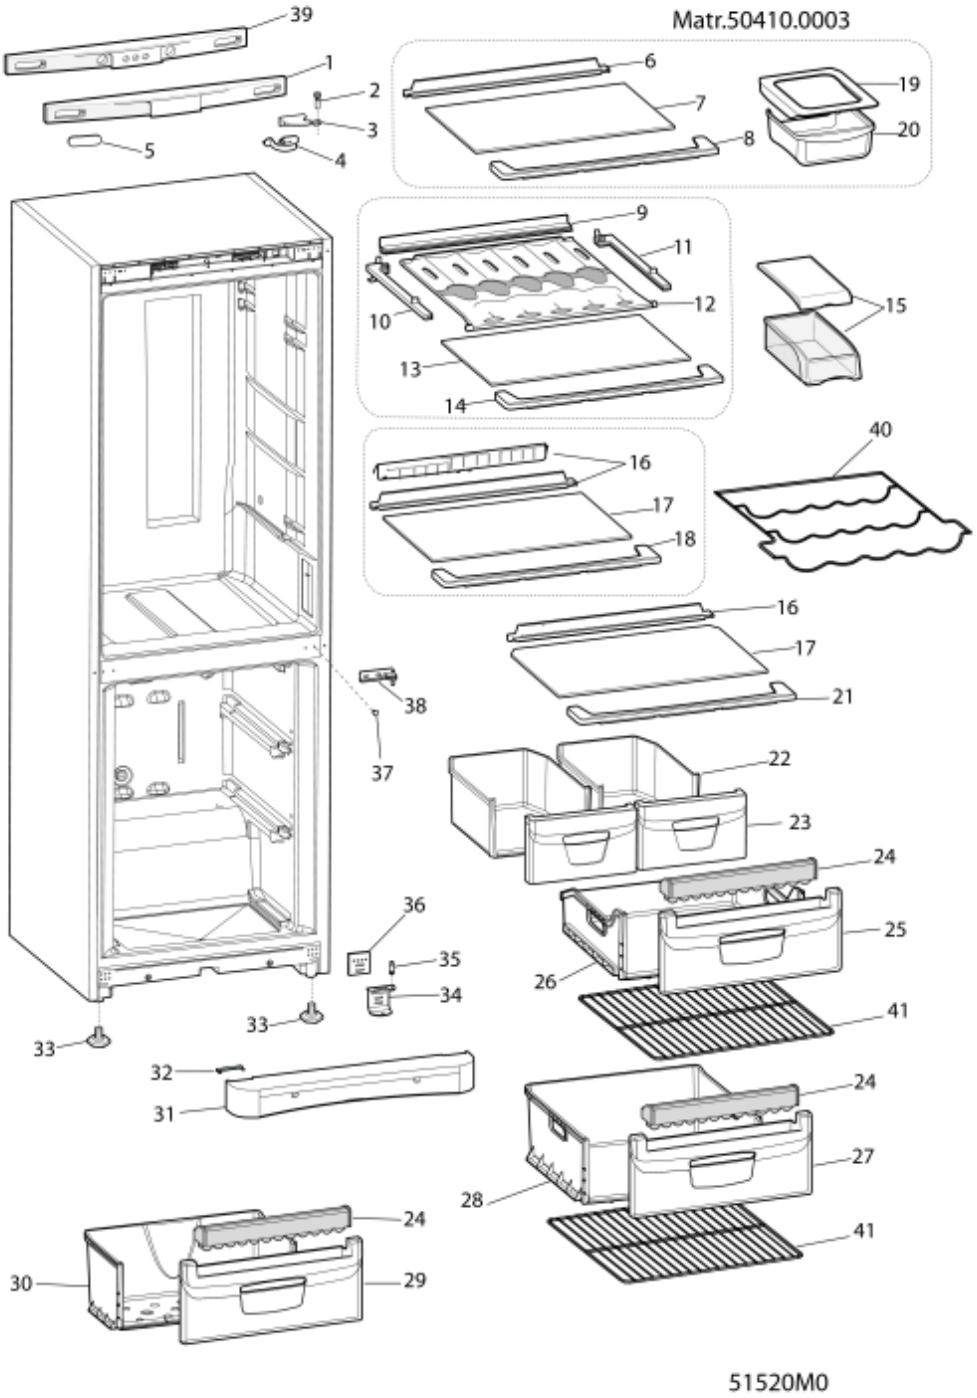

REF: reference no of spare into a table; SUBSTITUTE: list of spare(s) which can replace a code but that keeps same functional characteristics

INDUSTRIAL CODE: list of variables of a model (shown into model label) where such spare is used; NOTICE: code of information(s) to refer to complete technical intervention, track for changes or to find correct spare part code.

6. Some notices, into a same section are generic therefore cannot be directly linked to a spare part. In order to assist a model in the best way as possible, it is helpful to pay attention to all notices and constantly verify documentation updates

7.Technical documentation cover shows model name and its commercial codes

n1025093: Doors / weather stripping combined fridges / freezers Indesit/2000 Melano and Setubal

With the exception of the model R45, width 700 mm produced in Turkey (Manisa), on all the combined fridge and freezer models in the Indesit (range 2000), width 600 mm produced in Italy (Melano) and in Portugal (Setubal), Poland (Lodowek) the doors handled as replacement are without weather stripping because this is no longer blocked between door and counter-door.
The weather stripping has a new profile and is located in the housing resulting along the external perimeter of the counter-door, where it is threaded through by simple hand pressure. To remove the weather stripping it will suffice to unthread it from its housing without any other operation.

Therefore in case of replacement of the door the weather stripping may be recovered from the existing door, however the weather strips are handled singularly as a spare part.

n1030097: No-frost combi 28 watt drip tray heating element (width 60) Ariston - Indesit

In the event of breakage of the heating element utilised on the appliance for defrosting of the drip tray, use the 28 watt heating element (C00140585) and cable supplied as replacement parts.
For the use of these parts refer to the Technical Bulletin "TB001007" (ex STN - CL 0602.2) sheet entitled: "Broken drip tray heating element Platform 2005 NF W60"
